Coleman Morrell Promoted to Assistant Director of KCI

Frankfort, Ky. (Dec. 18, 2015) – Kentucky Department of Corrections Deputy Commissioner James Erwin today announced that Coleman Morrell has been promoted to assistant director of Kentucky Correctional Industries (KCI). He assumed his new duties Nov. 1.

“Morrell is an exceptional leader and dedicated employee,” said Erwin. “I am confident that he will succeed in his new role.”

Morrell began his career with the Department of Corrections in July 2008 as a correctional officer at the Kentucky Correctional Institution for Women (KCIW). In January 2010 he was promoted to sergeant and later that same year was promoted to institutional training coordinator at KCIW. In November 2013 he was promoted to program administrator for the division of Adult Institutions. In 2014 Morrell was named acting assistant director of KCI.

Morrell is a 2002 graduate of the University of Dayton where he earned a bachelor’s degree in psychology and criminal justice. He is also a 2013 graduate of the Commissioner’s Executive Leadership Program and the recipient of a 2012 Commissioner’s Award.
